CITY CLERK

Robby Bancroft
Local Business Owner

Age: 36

Thank you for considering me to represent you.

I'm running for City Council in District 2 because I love Pacifica, care deeply about our community and strive to be of service at the highest level possible. I'm a lifelong Pacifican born and raised in District 2 and co-owner of Breakers Breakfast, Brunch & Lunch in Rockaway. I worked as Development and Communications Coordinator at Pacifica Resource Center from 2016-2020 and now serve on the Board of Directors for Pacificans Care.

Representing you, I pledge to help solve our city's impending $2.7 million deficit, tackle the high cost of living that is fueling the affordable housing crisis, bring more resources into our community to address mental health needs, work collaboratively to deal with the ongoing effects of climate change (i.e. wildfires, drought, flooding, landslides, coastal erosion and sea level rise) and continue the efforts to preserve our open spaces, hillsides and ridges.

Now more than ever, we need to rely on working relationships and experience to protect our city, support our local businesses and build a thriving community. Elect me and I will make sure your voice is heard in order to establish solutions that will work for us all.
