PRESS RELEASE

April 16, 2019

Police Seek Assistance Locating Suspect Wanted for 2016 Attempted Murder

Pacifica, CA- On April 27, 2016 officers responded to a shooting on the 1000 block of Terra Nova Boulevard. It was determined a 25 year old pregnant woman had been shot in the head by her ex-boyfriend, Ricardo Colindres, a 25 year old transient, formerly a resident of Brisbane. The victim and her child were fortunate to have survived this attack.

Ricardo Colindres remains at large. He is described as a 28 year old Hispanic male, 5'-5" tall, 125 pounds, with brown hair and brown eyes.

An arrest warrant was obtained for Colindres for two counts of attempted murder and attempted kidnapping in this incident. The Pacifica Police Department has been working in collaboration with the U.S. Marshal's Service to locate and apprehend Colindres. He has family in the Brisbane area, as well as parts of the California Central Valley in the areas of Lodi and Burson, California. He is also reported to frequent the area of Las Vegas, Nevada.

Colindres knows he is wanted and may have altered his appearance. He has also been featured on the website Northern California's Most Wanted at northerncaliforniamostwanted.org

Anyone with information regarding the whereabouts of Colindres is asked to call the U.S. Marshal's Tipline at 1-800-336-0102 or the Pacifica Police Department at 650-738-7314. Information may be provided anonymously by calling the Silent Witness Tip Line at 650-359-4444.

Colindres is considered armed and dangerous; if he is seen immediately call 9-1-1.
